To My Darling Jack

I am not writing in this because you want me to but because I want to

I want to thank you for all of the good times and all of the places you have taken me while we have been going together.

I also want to wish you "Best Wishes" and all of the "Happiness" I could possible wish you through out all your years to come following this year of "1954."

I want to tell you how sorry and that I apologize for the bad moods I have been in since I have been going with you and for all of the bad days I have caused you

Love always

Yours

Linda

Medina High is much like a sturdy tree: The faculty is like the branches, carrying food for thought from the roots of learning to the leaves, and the students are these leaves.

As symbolized on our cover, each year more leaves fall from the tree, some to stay near the mother plant, and some to float away, never to be seen again.

The Medinian staff of the class of 1955 wish to present this scrapbook to you, the student body of M.H.S. We hope that every time you open it fond memories of your high school days will drift back to you.

FOOTBALL 1953

The Medina football team did not live up to expectations, but they were far from a bad team. With only 5 regulars back from last year's championship team, the team built up into a strong team. The team's record was four wins, one tie, and four losses, but the only game in which they were really outclassed was against the Wadsworth Grizzlies. The team played every game for sixty minutes and exhibited fine sportsmanship and were complimented for it after their 6 to 0 victory over St. Marys. They were one of the hardest working teams we've had in years.

"FIVE TO BUILD A HIVE"

"Bring on the girls" is usually the cry of men. Well, that's just what we've done. We've brought on five, selected by you, the student body, to support our "Bees" and lead them on to victory.

They are (reading from left to right): Faith Svoboda, Betty Arters, Nancy Miller, Phil Shaw and Gary Snyder. They are all new to Medina as cheerleaders this year with the exception of Faith. They had their first practice sometime in the middle of July and worked very hard during the rest of the summer. When school started they practiced twice a week and any other time they had a chance.

We, the students of Medina High School, salute these girls for the excellent work and fine exhibition of sportsmanship throughout the year.

HOMECOMING

Preceding the homecoming game with Rocky River, Queen Freda Westfall and her attendants, Nancy Williams and Johanna Figland, were driven around the square followed by a parade from school.

Just before the kickoff Queen Freda presented the football to co-captains Roger Anderson and Ron Standen. After a game full of thrills and excitement the final score was in favor of River.

Following the game a dance was held at the high school auditorium where Freda was crowned Homecoming Queen for 1953.

VARSITY

SEATED: Ed Raymond, Bill McClellan, Jim Venus, Ronnie Bryenton, Nils Englund, Ron Duke.
STANDING: Alan Medley, manager, Roger Anderson, Gary Davis, Roger Coe, Darrel Seibert, Roy Wagner, Harvey Carter, manager.

The basketball team, with their captain, Jim Venus, enjoyed a very good season. The team won eight games and lost six, ending the season in a tie for second place. The boys had a very high spirit and worked very hard at practice as well as in the games.

The reserves worked very hard at both practice and in the games. The one handicap the team worked under was lack of height. This was helped when Jack Richardson came to play for the reserves. Although the reserves ended up with eight losses and six wins, the season went along very well.

The girls' basketball team this year was composed of eighteen girls with just three veterans. They practiced every Tuesday and Thursday night after varsity basketball practice. The girls all worked very hard under the guidance of "Ma Allen."

GYM CLASSES

Both the boys' and girls' gym classes showed new activity this year. The fellows took trips to the bowling alley and reports say that we have some pretty good bowlers. The girls studied tumbling as well as basketball and volleyball.

MUSICAL BEES

Another season of marching band has come and gone. Practice started two weeks before school started and continued through football season. This year the band adopted the idea of line leaders.

Mel Vidika was drum major and he and the majorettes made a wonderful showing.

Some of the year's outstanding shows were Ohio Sesquicentennial, Gay Nineties, and a Blues number.

We will agree that the band put out wonderful shows each week.

The Stardusters practice every Wednesday after school under the guidance of Mr. Stacy. They furnish most of the music for the dances after football and basketball games plus other activities at which they are asked to play. These students receive no credit for this, but they do it because they enjoy working together.

Yell-Gals

Medina's cheerleaders this year are Faith Svoboda, Betty Arters, Garlene Snyder, Phyllis Shaw, and Nancy Jo Miller. All of the girls are cheering for their first year except one, Faith Svoboda. Faith was a cheerleader last year so she has had some experience. This is an advantage as Faith can help the girls with many problems that come up.

The cheerleaders started practicing the first of July and are still going strong, hoping to improve for every game. The girls plan all of the pep assemblies and decorate the auditorium for every game, at home or away. Each of the girls has worked hard. The work is divided evenly, with no one doing more than the others.

The cheerleaders have two goals they want to reach. They want to be the best cheerleaders Medina has ever had, and to cheer our football players on to victory at every game.

Stardusters

The Stardusters spent many hours of preparation for the homecoming dance. The members who put forth this effort were Wanda Thompson, alto sax; Nevin Lantry and Marilyn Wetzel, tenor sax; Myron Morlock and Roger Suddleson, baritone sax; Tom Jones, Don Canfield, Karen Schmidt and Nancy Gross, trumpet; Raymond Fenn and Bob Pelton, trombone; Jack Longacre and Lindalee Smith, drums; Sarah

Musical Bees

This year the marching band of M. H. S. consists of sixty-eight bandsmen, four majorettes and a drum major, ably directed by Mr. Richard Stacy. Mr. Dague assists him each fourth period and does the announcing of the games over the new public address system.

Our band started fall practice August 30, and has thus presented four complete shows. The first, presented at the Kent Roosevelt and Wellington games, was based on a vacation theme. The second, presented at Amherst, was built around great personalities in show business. This show will be repeated for the Medina fans at the stadium tomorrow night when the Bees play Fairview.

The Homecoming show was built around the color Blue. This half-time extravaganza featured three different and difficult dance routines. Because of the complexity of this show, two weeks were required to prepare it. Therefore, the band, as a group, did not attend the Oberlin game.

To prepare a new show the band first has several indoor sessions to familiarize themselves with the new music. Then they march to the stadium where they learn their individual positions in each formation. During the week, the band members, divided into small groups, give up at least one study period to learn any dance steps to be used. After the music and the marching formations are well in mind, the show is put together and prac-

The Medinamite staff has had one of the most successful years in the history of the paper. The Journalism class put out seven monthly editions, one of them a huge six page Christmas issue, and the Medinamiter. The class sold football programs to raise money.

The members of the Journalism class have learned many of the fundamentals of newspaper writing and have had a good time doing it. Under the supervision of Mr. Dague and headed by Bill Golder and Raelene Schlechty, the staff worked together and learned together, which adds up to one of the best Medinamites M. H. S. has ever had.

The Medinian staff of 1954 has done its best to bring you the most complete Medinian, 1954 annual that it is possible to publish. This has involved late hours and hard work, well blended with foolishness and fun. As the year progressed the rubber cement, dummies, galleys, slide rules, and hot words flew thick and fast to beat the deadline, but as we view the finished product, we of the staff feel that the work was more than worthwhile.
